Award winning cake artist Lori Hutchinson also known as The Caketress will be debuting her first Indonesia class at Sugar World Academy. 'The Caketress' designs some of the most elegant fashion inspired cakes in the industry. Renowned for her 'haute couture' style cakes. She is a respected international instructor and cake designer. Her clients are from all around the world.

Where she will be teaching her unique style in class. Students will bring in an inspiration board to class. Similar to a client at a cake consultation. Students will be their own inspiration from fashion to sketching and create their own high fashion four tier cake design while being mentored by Lori. During the 3 days students will be taught a large variety fabric techniques. This is the ultimate fashion inspired workshop. But unlike your usual project based class. This class teaches students how to take their clients vision and translate them to cake.

You don't need to have an advance skill to attend this class as long as you know how to cover a cake with fondant properly, you are set to go.

Queen of Hearts Couture Cakes is a multi award winning cake company based in London. Founded in June 2011, the company is headed by Cake Artists and bestfriends, Valeri and Christina.

Valeri and Christina take immense pride in their mastery of buttercream art and this makes Queen of Hearts Couture Cakes exclusive in London area and one of the very few who specializes in the same kind in the whole of UK and probably around the world as well. They have also won several awards in various prestigious cake competitions in the country. Following unprecedented demand for tutorial and courses, 2012 marked the launch of our Master Classes. Valeri and Christina have finally opened their kitchen to share the skills they excel in to other people. They hold classes in Europe, U.S.A. and Asia that suit a variety of proficiency levels.

Queen of Hearts Couture Cakes promises elegance... originality... sophistication... quality... perfection.
